

JOB OFFERS?

THINK BEFORE YOU COMMIT!

Not all job offers are what they seem

With more people job hunting virtually, suspicious offers are becoming increasingly common.

Be on your guard and do not accept dubious jobs that offer lucrative returns for minimal effort.

What should you do when receiving such messages?

Ignore them

- Do not respond or you may receive even more messages
- Do not provide any personal information

Block/report

- Blocking the number helps you stop receiving more spam messages
- Report the number if the message was sent via a messaging app

Use ScamShield

- The ScamShield app filters potential scam messages to a junk SMS folder and also allows you to report the sender's number
